

I oppose imposing the "existing business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. The mails are more than adequate to contact customers without impinging on consumer privacy.